Praxis™ CERTIFICATION

APMG International™
Praxis Framework™

The Praxis Framework is a complete and integrated project, programme and portfolio management framework. It is an holistic approach that enables individuals and organisations to develop capability and use it to improve project delivery success rates.

Why Become Certified in the Praxis™ Framework?

The Praxis™ Framework is an integrated framework that helps individuals and organizations realize fully the intended benefits of Project, Programme, and Portfolio (P3) management.

The Framework is a combination of four types of best practice guidance; knowledge, method, competency and capability.

By providing a wealth of resources, tools, and models in a freely available, community-driven, and simple-to-use format, the Praxis™ Framework encourages continuing professional development through the uptake and application of tools and processes, and the constant evolution of best practice.

Becoming certified in the Framework confirms that you understand and can apply the framework to projects and programmes. This ensures that they achieve optimal results.

By becoming certified to show your abilities as a highly skilled project or programme manager, able to implement the framework at any stage of delivery.

5 Benefits of the Praxis™ Framework

Integration
Praxis™ uses a common taxonomy and terminology across all elements of the Framework, so there is no need to cross reference or translate between guides.

Certification
Praxis™ has a clear certification pathway from foundational knowledge all the way to Chartered Project Professional (ChPP) status, the "Individual Path" (see right).
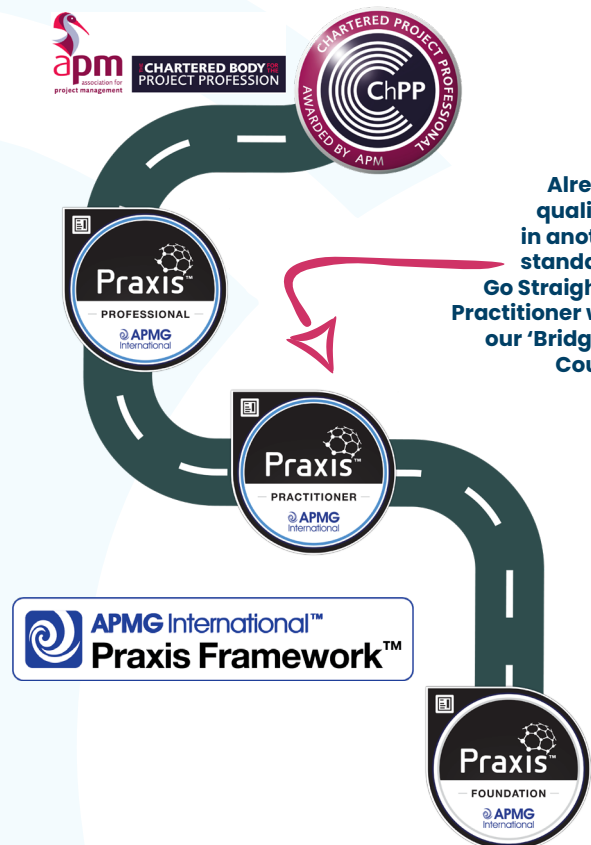

Customization
Your organization can insert its own process model, templates, and content into the framework.

Community
Praxis™ is an open source framework that is driven by its community. Peer-reviewed content is being added all the time, and anyone can suggest additions.

Resources
Praxis™ is supported by a huge wealth of resources, all of which are freely available on the Praxis™ website.

BRIDGING

APMG International™
Praxis Framework™

The Praxis™ Bridging Course is for those who are certified in another standard of Project or Programme Management (e.g. PRINCE2, APM, MSP), and who want to use a more integrated P3 framework in their role moving forward.

What does the Praxis™ Framework Bridging Course Cover?

The Praxis™ Bridging Course Certification is designed for certified Project Professionals to gain understanding in the Praxis™ areas of competence not covered by other P3M certification frameworks. As well as covering the competencies for the Praxis™ Pracititioner certification, the Bridging Course explores the similarities and differences between the Praxis™ Framework and PRINCE2®, MSP® and APM standards.

Which Qualification will I receive?

Upon completion of the Praxis™ Bridging Course you will be prepared to sit your Praxis™ Practitioner examination. By passing this examination you will receive the Practitioner certification, and can continue on the Praxis™ Individual Path to Chartered Project Professional (ChPP) Status via Praxis Framework Professional (PFP) certification.

Learning Outcomes

As with the Praxis™ Practitioner Certification, successful candidates will have sufficient understanding to apply and tailor the Framework to real-life projects and programmes. More specifically, they will be able to:

- ✔ Understand and explain the relationships between the roles, documents, functions, techniques and processes of the Praxis™ Framework;

- ✔ Tailor and apply the roles, functions, techniques and processes to a P3 scenario

- ✔ Create and assess P3 documents for a given scenario, identifying appropriate and inappropriate use of the Framework.

Chartered Project Professional Status
ChPP (Route 2)

Administered by the Association for Project Management (APM), Chartered Project Professional (ChPP) status is the most sought after accolade in the project profession, and is the benchmark for project delivery professionalism.
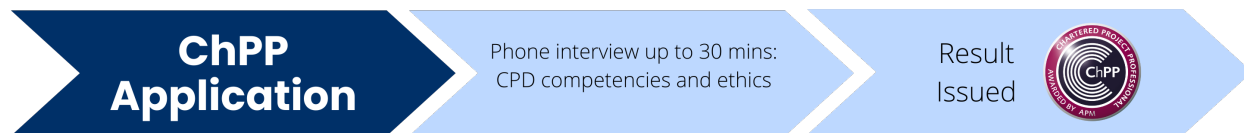

Chartered Project Professional (ChPP) Status

The APM Chartered Project Professional is awarded only to project delivery professionals who can demonstrate both significant experience of working in a complex project delivery environment together with a broad knowledge of project techniques, and who can demonstrate an ongoing commitment to professional ethics and continuing professional development (CPD).

Upon successful completion of the Praxis™ Framework Professional (PFP) Certification and receipt of your certificate, you may apply for ChPP Status (also known as Route 2). Because the PFP covers so many of the core competencies required of a Chartered Project Professional, the process to gain ChPP status is relatively

The assessment is administered by the APM, and once an application is submitted, it is assessed by a portfolio of 35 hours of CPD and a 30-minute phone interview which covers:
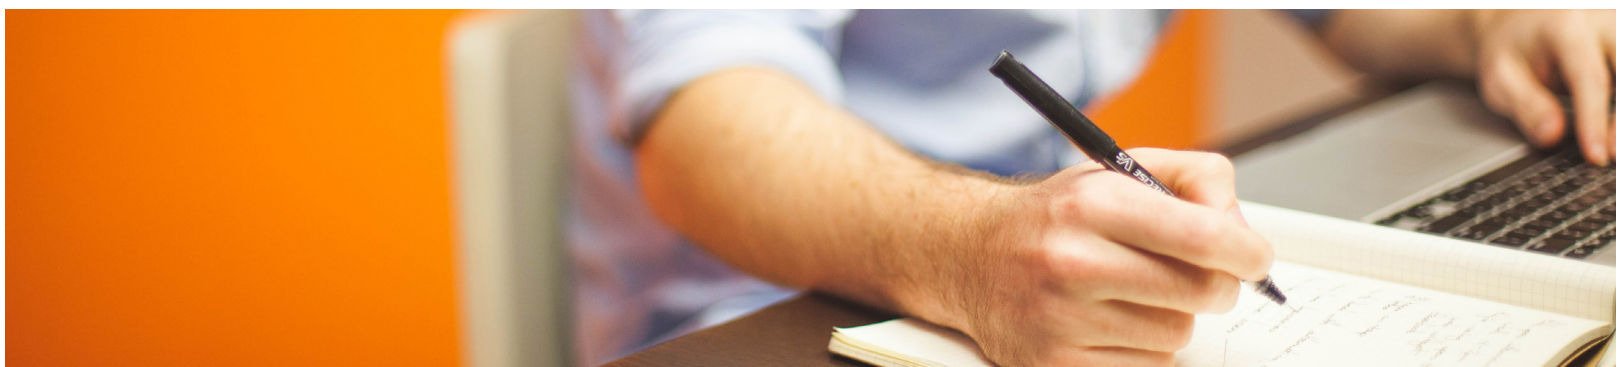

- ✓ Your continuing commitment to Professional Ethics
- ✓ Your currency of practice and your commitment to continuing professional development

ChPP Application → Phone interview up to 30 mins: CPD competencies and ethics → Result Issued

The ChPP Application and Assessment Process via Route 2 (The Praxis Framework)

Why Attain ChPP Status via the Praxis Framework?

By attaining your ChPP status via the Praxis Route, you are gaining a professional qualification that is a clear sign of your progression in the Praxis Framework and which meets the core competencies required for ChPP status, but we will support you throughout the process, ensuring that you get the most out of the experience, including the coveted APM ChPP badge of honour.
